Our Founder

Angela Mustone, a specialist producer of wellness products, created the brand with the goal of empowering women to embrace self-care. HighOnLove's products are beautiful, but it's what's inside that counts. Each one lives up to its promise, as proven by a loyal customer base and vibrant social media community.

Merchandising & Compliance

Decadent textures, high-end custom bottles and rose gold accents combine to create a consumer experience that offers an undeniable rush of excitement and temptation. EVENTS

From Paris, with HighOnLove

HighOnLove held an exclusive pop-up event in Paris from February 1st to February 4th, 2024. Attendees were treated to a firsthand look at the line just in time for Valentine's Day gifting. It was the ideal opportunity to introduce HighOnLove to the Parisian market, and an onsite product engraving service added a personalized touch to the soirée.

EVENTS

A Galentine's Affair

A bright and airy loft in historic Old Montreal was the venue for an intimate HighOnLove Valentine's Day event for editors and influencers. The gathering was an ideal opportunity to present the latest HighOnLove product launches, including the Celebration Collection and the new Bath Salts, to local and regional media. Valentine's Day bestsellers such as the Dark Chocolate Body Paint and plumping Lip Gloss were also displayed for trial, with plenty of goodies to go around. This "Galentine's Day" event was one to remember.

In 2022, HighOnLove® received TWO nominations in the Cosmetics Executive Women (CEW) Beauty Creator Awards. These awards recognize excellence in the industry by honoring the leaders and teams behind the most innovative beauty products of the year.
