

HIGHONLOVE®

BRAND CATALOGUE

HIGHONLOVE® IS...

An award-winning, buzzed-about line of self-care and sensual products designed to pamper bodies of all shapes and sizes. From relaxing bath oils to luxurious massage candles and the cult fave Stimulating Sensual Oil, each HighOnLove product is both beautifully packaged and functional, harnessing the natural benefits of hemp seed oil. We're female-founded, so we're all about encouraging women to prioritize themselves — but our products are blissfully enjoyed by couples, too.

Our story

Back in 2018, CEO Angela Mustone launched the brand with a mission: to celebrate pleasure and make it accessible to women everywhere. In a time when sexual wellness was still stigmatized, HighOnLove stood proudly, pioneering a new era with products designed to enhance intimacy.

Prior to becoming the president of Produits Amour & Beauté, Mustone worked for California Exotic

Novelties and Dermalogica. The international sales experience earned through these roles gives her a unique global perspective and an appetite for growth beyond borders. Today, she travels to source only the highest quality ingredients, fine-tuning each new blend to perfection, and is actively expanding HighOnLove to new markets in Europe, Asia and beyond.

Our ingredients

The entire HighOnLove line is vegan, cruelty-free and made with clean ingredients, so you can feel good in every way. We are committed to sourcing premium, natural ingredients that deliver results while providing a well-deserved moment of self-care or intimacy. Each product lives up to its promise, as proven by a loyal customer base and global social media community.

Take your pleasure to new heights with HighOnLove.
